June 3, 2024

The third day of the highly anticipated Teachers Training Programme at JEMS Digital Hall in Sangamner proved to be an invigorating and insightful experience for all participants. The day was meticulously planned and packed with a variety of enriching sessions, spearheaded by esteemed educators and experts in the field.

Mr. Sagar Pawar: Unveiling the Power of the Digital Board

The day commenced with a comprehensive session by Mr. Sagar Pawar, who delved into the myriad functions of the digital board. His explanation was not just theoretical but demonstrated the practical application of this cutting-edge technology in a classroom setting. Attendees were captivated by the ease with which complex concepts could be simplified and made engaging for students using digital tools. Mr. Pawar's session highlighted how digital boards can revolutionize teaching methods, making learning interactive and more effective.

Principal Ramesh Dighe: A Masterclass on "Food and Its Sources"

Following the technology session, Principal Ramesh Dighe took the stage to demonstrate an ideal class lecture on the topic "Food and Its Sources." His approach was a perfect blend of traditional teaching methods and modern digital aids. Principal Dighe's dynamic presentation not only conveyed the subject matter with clarity but also showcased effective classroom management techniques. His use of real-life examples and interactive questioning kept the participants engaged and provided a model for delivering impactful lessons.

Stress Buster Physical Activity: Energize and Revitalize

Recognizing the importance of physical well-being, a stress buster activity was conducted by Sandip Abhale and Mr. Sagar Pawar. This session aimed to refresh and re-energize the participants. The activity involved a series of simple yet effective exercises designed to alleviate stress and promote physical fitness. Laughter and camaraderie filled the hall as teachers participated enthusiastically, underscoring the significance of mental and physical wellness in the teaching profession.

Lesson Plan Format: Blueprint for Success

Principal Ramesh Dighe returned for a crucial session on crafting effective lesson plans. He meticulously explained the components of a well-structured lesson plan, emphasizing the importance of clear objectives, engaging activities, and assessment strategies. This session provided teachers with a solid framework to plan their lessons efficiently, ensuring a coherent and goal-oriented approach to teaching.

Conclusion: Refreshments and Reflections

The day concluded on a refreshing note as participants were treated to cold drinks, offering an opportunity to relax and reflect on the day's learning. This informal gathering allowed for networking and exchanging ideas, fostering a sense of community among the educators.

A Day of Innovation, Learning, and Wellness

Day 3 of the Teachers Training Programme at JEMS Digital Hall was a testament to the transformative power of continuous professional development. The blend of technological insights, pedagogical strategies, physical well-being, and collaborative learning equipped teachers with the tools needed to enhance their instructional practices. As the participants left, they carried with them not just new knowledge but also a renewed passion for teaching and a commitment to providing the best educational experiences for their students.

The session covered various aspects of the NEP 2020, with particular attention to capacity building, the National Curriculum Framework (NCF), pedagogical approaches, and assessment systems.

Key Points Discussed:

Importance for All Stakeholders:

NEP 2020 is crucial for parents, teachers, and students to understand as it impacts the entire educational ecosystem. It aims to transform the educational structure to make it more holistic, flexible, multidisciplinary, aligned to the needs of the 21st century, and aimed at bringing out the unique capabilities of each student.

Capacity Building Program:

The program emphasized the importance of continuous professional development for teachers to stay updated with the latest educational practices and policies.

National Curriculum Framework (NCF):

NCF was discussed as a guideline for syllabus, textbooks, and teaching practices to ensure uniformity and coherence in the educational standards across the country.

Pedagogy:

The focus was on activity-based, child-centered pedagogy to foster critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving skills among students.

Activity-Based, Child-Centered Learning:

Emphasis on the need for teaching methods that engage students actively and cater to their individual learning needs.

Curriculum and Syllabus Difference:

Clarification was provided on the difference between curriculum (overall learning experiences) and syllabus (specific content to be taught).

Key Principles of NEP 2020:

Inclusion, equity, quality, affordability, and accountability in education.

NCF 2023:

The latest updates and revisions to the NCF to align with NEP 2020's goals.

Panchkosh:

The holistic development model mentioned in NEP 2020, which includes physical, mental, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual growth.

Balvatika:

A preparatory class for children in the age group of 3-6 years to ensure a smooth transition to primary school.

Vidyapravesh:

An initiative to ensure that children entering Grade 1 have age-appropriate foundational activities.

NEP 2020 is a comprehensive framework aimed at overhauling the Indian education system by focusing on several key areas:

Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE): Emphasizing universal access to quality early childhood education.

Curriculum and Pedagogy: Reducing curriculum content to enhance essential learning and critical thinking.

Multilingualism: Promoting the use of mother tongue/local language as the medium of instruction up to at least Grade 5.

Holistic and Multidisciplinary Education: Offering a wide range of subjects and integrating vocational education.

Teacher Education: Improving teacher training and professional development.

Higher Education: Creating more multidisciplinary institutions and increasing Gross Enrollment Ratio.

Technology in Education: Leveraging technology for learning and teaching.

NEP Journey So Far:

A review of the progress and milestones achieved in the implementation of NEP 2020.

PARAKH:

Performance Assessment, Review, and Analysis of Knowledge for Holistic Development, a national-level assessment center.

Teacher Talking Time & Students Talking Time

Programs aimed at enhancing the skills of educators and improving school management practices.

SAFAL:

Structured Assessment for Analyzing Learning, a framework for competency-based assessment in schools.

Equity and Excellence in Assessment:

Strategies to ensure fair and high-quality assessments for all students.

Foundational Literacy and Numeracy (FLN):

The importance of achieving basic reading and arithmetic skills in early education.

NCERT Preschool Curriculum:

Guidelines for early childhood education to ensure a strong foundation for lifelong learning.

Sport, Story, and ICT Integrated Learning:

The integration of sports, storytelling, and information and communication technology in teaching to make learning engaging and effective.

NIPUN Bharat:

National Initiative for Proficiency in Reading with Understanding and Numeracy, aiming to ensure foundational literacy and numeracy skills by Grade 3.

Timeline for Implementation of Continuous Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE):

Detailed timelines and strategies for implementing CCE to track student progress continuously.

Assessment System of New Educational System:

Overview of the new assessment methods focusing on holistic and comprehensive evaluation of student performance.

Difference and Comparison Between Assessment and Evaluation:

Clarification on the distinction between assessment (ongoing process) and evaluation (culminative judgement).

Feedback by Participants:

Laturkar: Highlighted the clarity and depth of the session, praising the comprehensive coverage of NEP 2020. Appreciated Vidyapravesh and NIPUN Bharat.

Asifa: Appreciated the practical insights and the focus on child-centered pedagogy.

Sagar: Commended the interactive approach and the detailed explanation of key initiatives but found the session to lengthy

Vote of Thanks:

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Principal Dighe Sir, who expressed gratitude to Bhakre Sir for his enlightening presentation and to the participants for their active engagement.

This training session was a significant step in equipping educators with the knowledge and skills required to implement NEP 2020 effectively, ensuring a robust and forward-looking educational framework

Date : 16/07/2024

Report no. 11

The Kai. Shankarrao Shewale Patil Trust's Jijamata English Medium School in Sangamner hosted a vibrant Ashadhi Ekadashi celebration on Tuesday, July 16, 2024, commencing at 9:00 AM. The celebration encapsulated the spirit of devotion and culture, bringing together students, teachers, and the community for a day filled with traditional festivities and heartfelt performances.

A Grand Opening: The event began with an introductory speech that set the tone for the day. The speaker welcomed everyone and highlighted the significance of Ashadhi Ekadashi in the Marathi cultural calendar, emphasizing the festival's roots in devotion and spirituality.

Traditional Dindi and Ringan: Following the introduction, the school's grounds came alive with the energetic Dindi and Ringan. Students and staff, dressed in traditional attire, formed a vibrant procession that depicted the age old tradition of pilgrimage to Pandharpur. The rhythmic beats of the dhol and the melodious chants of "Vithoba Rakhumai" filled the air, transporting everyone to a realm of spiritual fervor.

Mesmerizing Dance Performances: The first dance performance of the day captivated the audience with its grace and energy. Students performed a beautifully choreographed dance that depicted the joyous celebration of Ashadhi Ekadashi, showcasing their talent and dedication.

Inspiring One-Act Plays: The cultural segment continued with a series of one-act plays that highlighted the lives and teachings of revered saints. The first play portrayed the wisdom and spirituality of Saint Dnyaneshwar, followed by an enactment of Saint Tukaram's unwavering devotion by Soham Jadhav, and concluded with the inspiring story of Saint Namdev. These plays were not only entertaining but also served as a valuable lesson in the virtues of faith and perseverance.

Soulful Abhangs: The musical segment of the celebration featured solo and group Abhang performances. Pranit delivered a soulful rendition of "Nachu Kirtanache Rangi" and "Vitthal Avdi Prembhaye," by Pranit Umap and others captivating the audience with his melodious voice. This was followed by a group performance of the Abhang "Pandurang Bolto Mrudang," which resonated deeply with the attendees, fostering a collective sense of devotion and unity.

Concluding Dance Performance and Aarti: The final dance performance was a fitting tribute to the spirit of Ashadhi Ekadashi, blending traditional and contemporary dance forms. The celebration concluded with an Aarti a devotional song dedicated to Lord Vitthal, by President Dr. Manikrao Shevale, sung by the students and teachers, filling the atmosphere with divine energy and bringing the event to a serene close.

A Celebration to Remember: The Ashadhi Ekadashi celebration at Jijamata English Medium School was a remarkable event that not only honored the traditions and culture of Maharashtra but also instilled a sense of community and devotion among the participants. The meticulous planning and enthusiastic participation of students and staff made the celebration a memorable experience for all involved.

Welcome

Kai. Shankarrao Shewale Patil Trust's

Jijamata English Medium School,

The Celebration of Gurupournima Day at JEMS

The celebration of Gurupournima Day at JEMS was a grand and heartfelt event, that reflected the profound respect and admiration our students and staff have for their gurus. The program commenced with an anchoring session by Anushka and Apeksha, who set the tone for the day with their eloquent introductions and smooth transitions.

The event began with the paying of respects to the image of Rajmata Jijau, a revered figure whose values and teachings continue to inspire us. This act of homage was a poignant reminder of the timeless guidance provided by our ancestors.

Tanvi Hivrekar delivered an inspiring English speech, eloquently discussing the pivotal role of gurus in shaping our lives and guiding us towards success. Her words resonated with everyone present, highlighting the universal truth of the indispensable role of a guru.

Amulya Kolhe then took the stage to deliver a Marathi speech, adding a local cultural touch to the event. His heartfelt words emphasized the significance of Gurupournima and the deep-seated respect we hold for our teachers.

A beautiful group song, "Guru Bond of Love," followed, performed by a talented group of students. The melody and lyrics expressed the deep emotional connection between students and their gurus, creating a moving atmosphere.

Next was a captivating group dance performance to the tune of "Gurur Brahma." The dancers' grace and synchronization depicted the reverence and gratitude we hold for our teachers, celebrating the divine guidance they provide.

The program also included the felicitation of teaching and non-teaching staff, acknowledging their hard work and dedication. To develop the feeling of oneness and humility towards all, first to be honored were the non-teaching members for their contributions to the institution, reinforcing the respect and gratitude we hold for them.

Principal Sir's address was a fitting conclusion to the event. He spoke eloquently about the importance of a guru in one's life by narrating the incident of lost cow & the tiger. He emphasized how one without a guru fares in life, often lost and unguided like a tiger, highlighting the crucial role teachers play in providing direction and wisdom.

The Gurupournima Day celebration was a remarkable success, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present. It was a day filled with respect, gratitude, and a profound appreciation for the teachers who shape our lives and futures.

Report on Pre-Primary Parent Phonics Session – 30th August 2024

On 30th August 2024, an informative and engaging session was held for the parents of Nursery, Junior KG, and Senior KG students at Jijamata English Medium School. The main focus of the session was to introduce parents to the essential role of Phonics in early childhood education. The session saw full attendance from enthusiastic parents eager to understand how Phonics can improve their children's reading and language skills.

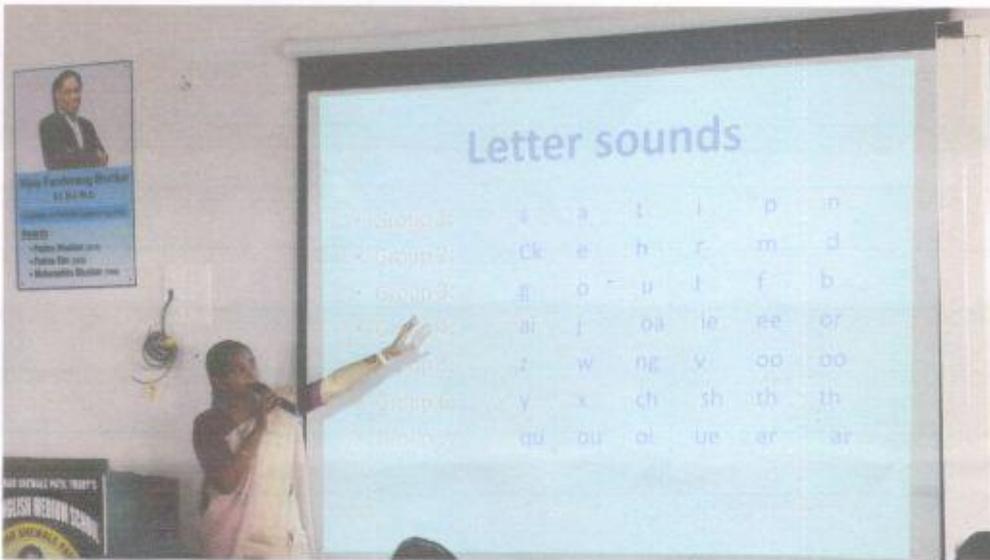

The session began with a warm welcome, followed by an introduction to Phonics as a powerful tool to enhance young learners' literacy. Parents were given an in-depth explanation of how Phonics helps children understand the relationship between letters and sounds, laying a solid foundation for reading and writing.

Madhuri Madam, who leads the pre-primary & primary section, took the stage to explain the rules and regulations for students, emphasizing the importance of maintaining a structured learning environment both at school and at home. She encouraged parents to actively support their children's learning journey by practicing Phonics at home, promoting consistency between school and home education.

A highlight of the event was the presence of Mr. Dange, the esteemed Principal of Vatsal English Medium School. He shared valuable insights on the importance of early literacy, reinforcing the significance of the school's efforts in introducing Phonics at this crucial stage. His words added weight to the session, leaving parents motivated and confident about their children's educational path.

The event was both informative and interactive, with parents asking insightful questions, eager to better support their children's learning at home. By the end of the session, parents left with a clear understanding of how Phonics can bridge the gap between spoken and written language, and the critical role they play in reinforcing this learning.

The session was a successful collaboration between the school and parents, marking an important step towards enhancing the academic foundations of our youngest learners.

Report on Hindi Day and Eid-e-Milad Celebration at Jijamata English Medium School

On the 14th of September, Jijamata English Medium School celebrated two significant events, Hindi Day and Eid-e-Milad, with great enthusiasm and unity. The celebration was a vibrant display of cultural pride and harmony, with students actively participating to make the event memorable.

The program began with an insightful presentation by the students on the importance of both Hindi Day and Eid-e-Milad. Hindi Day, observed annually on 14th September, commemorates the adoption of Hindi as one of India's official languages. The students, through their speeches, highlighted the significance of Hindi in promoting national unity and preserving the cultural heritage of India. They shared valuable ideas into the rich literary tradition of the language, celebrating it as the soul of the nation.

One of the highlights of the Hindi Day celebration was the melodious rendition of couplets by Saint Kabir, performed by a group of students. With their voices in perfect harmony, they sang the couplets in "Talasura" and provided meaningful explanations. These couplets, with their deep spiritual and philosophical messages, carried themes of self-examination, selflessness, and inner purity. The students used the platform to inspire the audience to adopt a more introspective and compassionate approach to life, embodying the timeless teachings of Kabir.

In the spirit of cultural inclusiveness, the school also celebrated Eid-e-Milad with equal zeal. Eid-e-Milad, marking the birth anniversary of Prophet Muhammad, was introduced to the audience as a celebration of peace, love, and brotherhood. The students performed a vibrant dance to the song "Mubarak Eid Mubarak," which spread the message of unity and harmony, transcending all differences. The graceful movements and colorful costumes of the students mesmerized the audience and taught a valuable lesson in pluralism and peaceful coexistence.

The program was seamlessly coordinated by Mrinmayi Waikar and Mayank Patil, students of class 5, who managed the event with confidence and grace. Their efforts ensured that the celebration flowed smoothly and was engaging for everyone present.

The principal of Jijamata English Medium School took the stage to appreciate the efforts of the students. He congratulated them on their performances and expressed his pride in how well they conveyed such valuable messages through their presentations. The principal also extended warm wishes to all for both Hindi Divas and Eid-e-Milad, emphasizing the importance of embracing the values of unity and respect for all cultures and languages.

The event concluded on a note of gratitude, with the coordinators thanking all those who contributed to the success of the program. The celebration not only deepened the students' understanding of both occasions but also fostered a spirit of togetherness, cultural pride, and mutual respect among the school community.

In essence, the combined celebration of Hindi Day and Eid-e-Milad at Jijamata English Medium School was a reflection of the school's commitment to nurturing cultural values and promoting inclusivity. It was a day filled with learning, joy, and heartfelt expressions of unity.

Teachers' Day Celebration

Jijamata English Medium School, 5th September 2024

On 5th September 2024, Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) came alive with a unique and inspiring celebration of Teachers' Day, where students took the reins, running the school from assembly to dispersal. This day, marking the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, was a tribute to the invaluable contribution of teachers in shaping the future of society.

The event commenced with a heartfelt introduction by Samruddhi Satpute, who eloquently spoke about the greatness of the day, emphasizing Dr. Radhakrishnan's legacy and his vision for the role of teachers in nation-building. To honor the guiding forces of knowledge, an image worship of Jijau Mata and Dr. Radhakrishnan was performed by the Principal, adding a touch of sanctity to the occasion.

Apoorva Nagre took to the stage to deliver an insightful speech, reminding everyone of the significance of Dr. Radhakrishnan's birth anniversary and his profound influence on the education system. Her words resonated deeply with the audience, celebrating the wisdom and dedication of teachers.

One of the most touching moments was the recitation of the poem आम्ही माती तू कुंभार, with lines that implored the teachers to continue molding and shaping the lives of their students. A few verses captured the spirit beautifully:

"आम्ही माती तू कुंभार,

ज्या घडवतोस जीवनाची शिल्पं साकार,

तुझ्या हातात आमची वाटचाल असते,

तूच देतोस आमच्या जीवनाला आकार!"

The Teachers' Day event at JEMS was not just a celebration but a heartfelt expression of gratitude towards the guiding lights who shape the future with their dedication and wisdom. It was a day that left lasting memories for both students and teachers alike.

Report on the 1st and 2nd Standard Parent Meeting at Jijamata English Medium School (14th September 2024) And Navnit Top Ten

On the 14th of September 2024, a significant meeting was conducted for the parents of 1st and 2nd standard students at Jijamata English Medium School. The meeting aimed to foster a stronger bond between the school and parents, and to introduce essential tools and methodologies that can further enhance the learning journey of young students.

The session began with a warm welcome by the school's administration. Mrs. Mayuri and Mrs. Neelam were introduced to the parents as the key instructors for Phonics, which plays a pivotal role in early language development. They emphasized how Phonics is crucial for building a strong foundation in reading and writing. Through this method, children can learn to decode words effectively, improving both their literacy skills and confidence.

Following this, Mrs. Sarika Sambre delivered a detailed presentation on the "Top 10 Educational Apps" that can be used at home to support children's learning. She highlighted how these apps cover a range of subjects, from mathematics and science to language and creativity, ensuring a well-rounded development for the students. Parents were encouraged to engage with these apps to make learning interactive and enjoyable for their children.

The meeting concluded with an interactive Q&A session where parents expressed their queries and shared valuable feedback. The school administration assured the parents of their continued commitment to providing the best learning experience for their children, with the cooperation of both educators and parents.

Overall, the meeting was a success, with parents gaining insightful knowledge about phonics instruction and digital tools that can aid their children's academic growth. The involvement of Mrs. Mayuri, Mrs. Neelam, and Mrs. Sarika Summary added great value to the session, marking another step forward in enhancing student learning outcomes.

Report on Cyber Security Awareness Session at Jijamata English Medium School

On Saturday, 14/9/2024, Jijamata English Medium School organized a highly informative session on cyber security, conducted by a team from QuickHeal Solutions. The session was aimed at educating students about the growing risks in the digital world and how to safeguard their online presence.

The session began with an introduction by Aarti Madam, who welcomed the cyber security experts—Aditi Sawant, Ganesh Deshmukh, and their colleague. After the morning assembly, the team from QuickHeal engaged the students with an interactive and insightful discussion on various aspects of cyber security.

Key points covered during the session included:

The importance of having a strong password, ensuring it is difficult to guess and regularly updated to prevent unauthorized access.

The value of two-step verification as an additional layer of protection for online accounts, ensuring that even if a password is compromised, the account remains secure.

Emphasis on not sharing personal photos or sensitive information online, which can lead to privacy breaches and misuse.

The need to keep social media accounts private, limiting access to only trusted individuals, and avoiding the pitfalls of oversharing.

The session was well-received by the students, who actively participated and asked questions. The school Principal appreciated the QuickHeal team for their efforts in making students aware of critical online safety measures. He encouraged the students to adopt these practices and remain vigilant while navigating the digital world.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Tanvi Bharitkar, who expressed gratitude to the QuickHeal team for their valuable guidance and to the school administration for organizing such an essential session.

This cyber security awareness program was a crucial step in ensuring that the students are better equipped to protect themselves in the ever-evolving digital landscape.

Report on the Celebration of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri's Birth Anniversaries at Jijamata English Medium School

Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) celebrated the birth anniversaries of two of India's most revered leaders, Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, with deep respect and reverence during the morning assembly on October 2, 2024. The event was a meaningful tribute to the lasting legacies of these great figures, whose values and principles continue to inspire generations.

The assembly commenced with a heartfelt homage to Mahatma Gandhi, the father of the nation, and Lal Bahadur Shastri, India's second Prime Minister. The school paid tribute to their contributions to India's freedom and progress through thoughtful speeches delivered by both students and teachers. These speeches highlighted the values of simplicity, truth, and leadership that Gandhi and Shastri embodied throughout their lives.

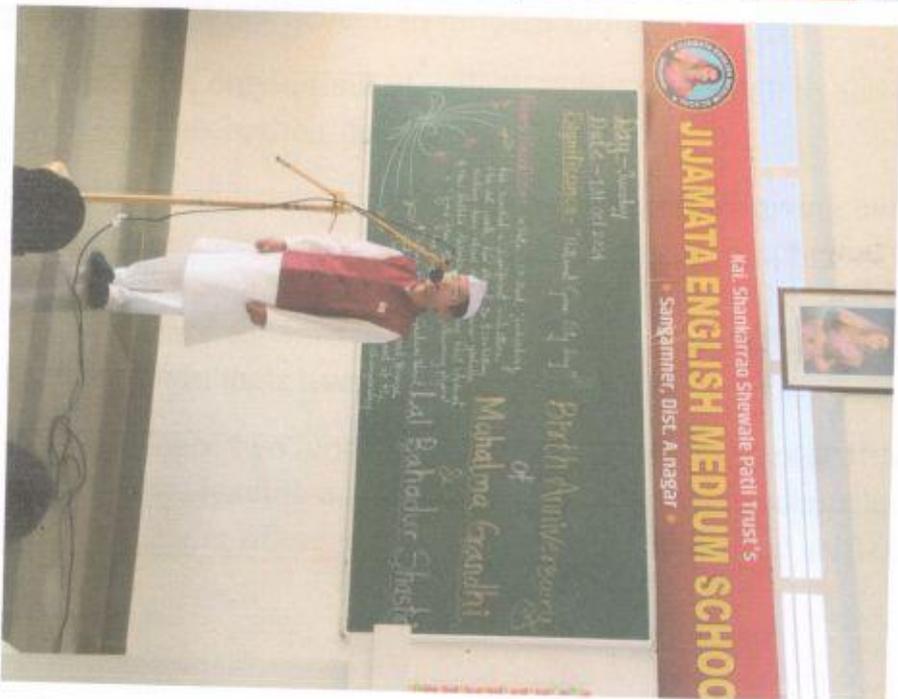

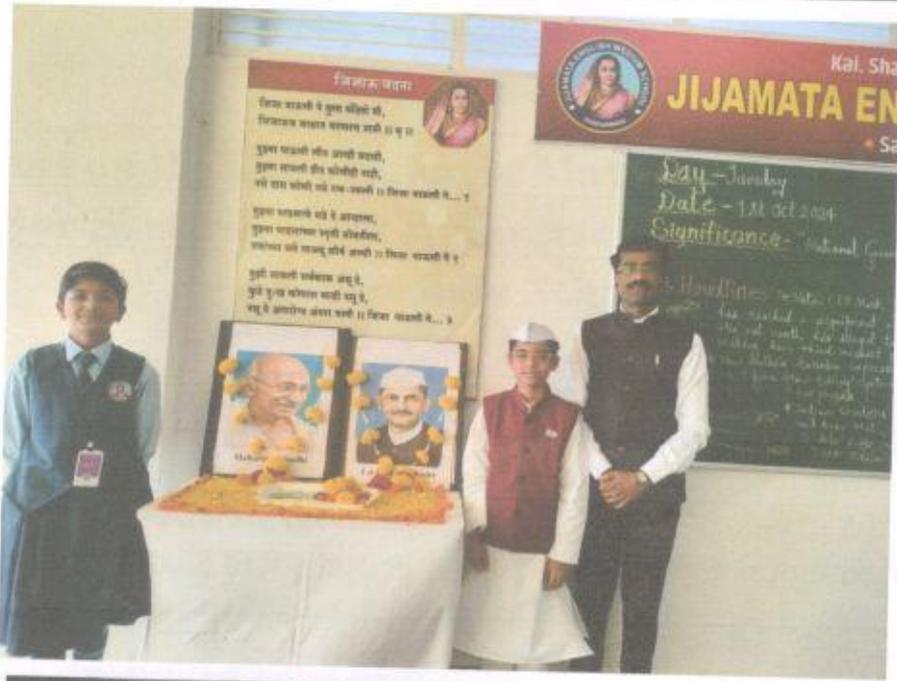

Students from different grades eloquently spoke about Mahatma Gandhi's unwavering commitment to non-violence and truth, emphasizing how his philosophy of Ahimsa remains relevant in today's world. The speakers also reflected on Gandhi's pivotal role in India's struggle for independence, inspiring the entire audience to follow his path of peace and tolerance.

In tribute to Lal Bahadur Shastri, students recalled his leadership during challenging times and his promotion of the famous slogan, "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan." They lauded Shastri's simplicity and dedication to the nation, drawing parallels between his leadership and the qualities needed in modern India.

The assembly was not only a time of reflection but also a call to action for the students to practice these values in their daily lives.

The event concluded with a moment of silent reflection, allowing everyone to pay their respects to the immense contributions of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri in shaping the course of Indian history. The Principal addressed the gathering, urging students to carry forward the ideals of these great leaders by practicing peace, unity, and patriotism in their lives.

The celebration of these two iconic leaders' birth anniversaries at JEMS was a fitting tribute to their legacy, leaving a lasting impression on the students and staff alike. The day served as a reminder of the power of simplicity, truth, and selfless service to the nation.

Report on the Mom & Kid Dandiya Competition at Jijamata English Medium School

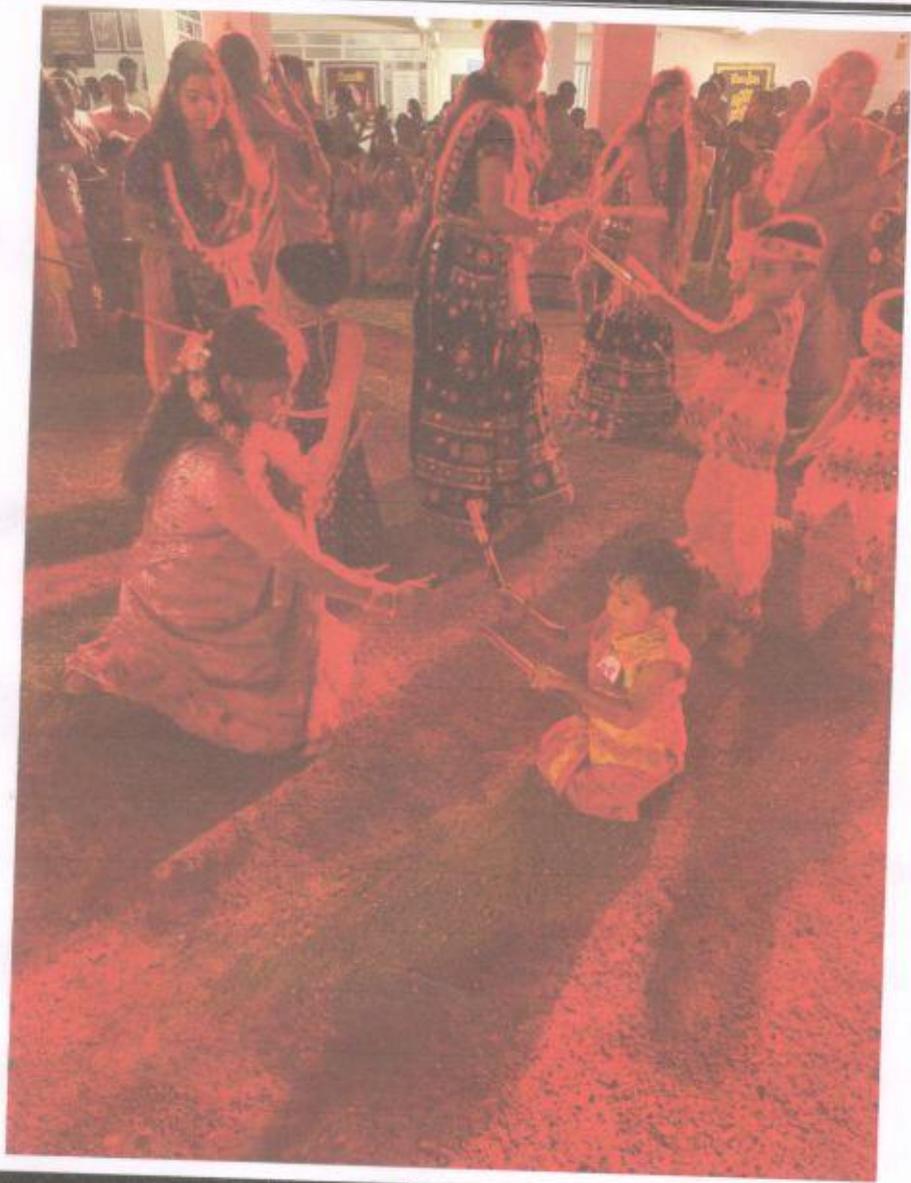

To awaken a sense of culture and unity, the Shankarao Shewale Patil Trust, in collaboration with Jijamata English Medium School, organized a vibrant Mom & Kid Dandiya Competition on Saturday, October 6, 2024. This lively event was held in celebration of the Sharadiya Navratri festival, a time that symbolizes color, music, action, and unity. The event was designed not only to showcase the spirit of Navratri but also to provide housewives with an opportunity to display their hidden talents, through the joyous traditional Dandiya and Garba dance forms.

The evening began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the esteemed chief guests, Dr. Neelam Shinde and Swamini Kamble, along with the School Coordinator, Madhuri Shevale, and Incharge, Prachi Jhunjur. The school's campus was transformed into a vibrant space, decorated with attractive electric lights and energetic DJ music that set the perfect tone for the festivities.

The competition featured three groups, with participants ranging from pre-primary students to those in class 10. In a beautiful display of family unity, mothers danced alongside their children, with some families bringing along brothers, sisters, and friends to join in the celebration. The sight of mothers and children joyfully performing the Garba and Dandiya was a heartwarming reflection of the strong bonds fostered by Indian culture.

The performances were judged by Dr. Neelam Shinde and Swamini Kamble, who selected the best Dandiya decorations and dance performances from each group. Three top contestants from each group were awarded prizes, highlighting the exceptional talent and enthusiasm of the participants.

The event concluded with a grand prize distribution ceremony, bringing smiles to the winners and applause from the audience. The success of the program was a testament to the collective efforts of the school management, administration, teachers, students, and non-teaching staff, who all worked tirelessly to ensure the event's smooth execution.

Report on Diwali Celebration at Jijamata English Medium School

Date: Saturday, 26th October 2024

Venue: Jijamata English Medium School, Sangamner

The Diwali celebration at Jijamata English Medium School on Saturday, 26th October 2024, was a radiant and joy-filled event that demonstrated our school's commitment to cultural heritage and unity. Held after the scheduled exams, the event was eagerly anticipated by students, teachers, and parents, who gathered to celebrate the festival of lights.

The event commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by our esteemed President, Dr. Manikrao Shewale, alongside the school staff. Anchors Kasturi Shevale and Samruddhi Sonawane gracefully led the program, creating a warm and vibrant atmosphere. The traditional lighting of lamps (arti) was performed with reverence before the images of Rajmata Jijau and Goddess Saraswati, symbolizing the blessings of wisdom, courage, and prosperity for all students.

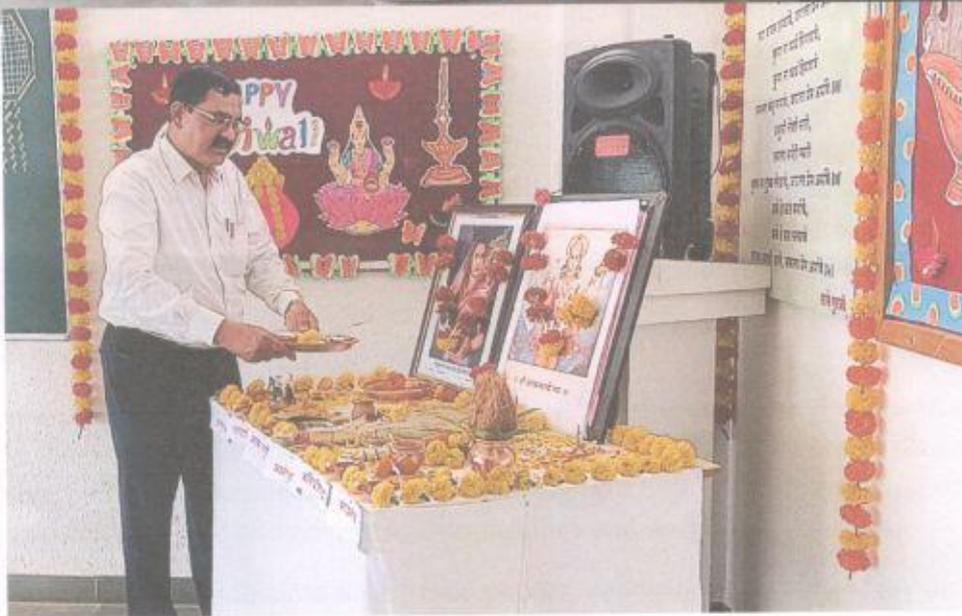

Dressed in traditional attire, students embraced the occasion with colorful and diverse ensembles, enhancing the festive spirit. The celebration continued with the symbolic Diwali ritual that highlights the bond between brothers and sisters, a tradition that reflects the love and protection central to Indian culture.

Dr. Shewale addressed the gathering with heartfelt presidential wishes, emphasizing the importance of Diwali as a festival that unites families and communities in joy, hope, and gratitude. Following his address, our Principal shared an inspiring message, appealing for a noiseless and pollution-free celebration. The Principal's reminder to be mindful of the environment added a meaningful layer to the day's celebration, encouraging students to enjoy the festival responsibly.

The students' enthusiasm was evident in their well-prepared speeches and songs that highlighted the cultural and spiritual essence of Diwali. These performances, filled with joy and devotion, conveyed messages of light conquering darkness, good triumphing over evil, and the importance of love and respect within families and society.

After the performances, each class took group photos, capturing moments of joy and togetherness. The photos will serve as cherished memories for students, preserving the warmth and spirit of the Diwali celebration at Jijamata English Medium School.

The event concluded with expressions of gratitude and best wishes for a prosperous and happy Diwali. This year's Diwali celebration was not only a memorable gathering of light and laughter but also a meaningful experience that emphasized respect for tradition, love for family, and responsibility toward the environment.

Report on "Plastic-Free Earth Drive" at JEMS

Day: Wednesday

Date : 13/11/2024

In an inspiring morning assembly today at Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS), the school community came together for a resolute drive against plastic pollution, themed "Plastic-Free Earth." Vidya Bhavar, anchoring the event, introduced the proceedings with an urgent call to action for environmental protection.

Principal Ramesh Dighe opened the program, welcoming esteemed dignitaries dedicated to the cause: Secretary of Jijamata School, Vithhaalrao Shevale; Professor Digambar Bandavane; retired Police Sub-Inspector Narayan Ugle; the tireless advocate Pagare Sir, who, at 85, continues to work diligently on environmental causes; and retired educator Parasare Sir.

The keynote address was delivered by Professor Bandavane, who outlined the severe threats posed by plastic pollution, likening it to a "Frankenstein monster" in modern society. His speech illuminated the dangers plastic waste poses to ecosystems, wildlife, and human health, urging students to consider practical ways to combat this menace. Bandavane encouraged JEMS students to take personal responsibility, from reducing single-use plastics to participating in community cleanups.

Retired PSI Narayan Ugle followed with a bilingual address in Marathi and English, emphasizing the importance of clear communication on environmental issues. He shared alarming statistics about how plastics cover vast acres of land in the form of non-disposable mulching sheets, which threaten soil health and agricultural productivity. Ugle's message underscored the collective responsibility of young people in preserving the planet.

In a powerful appeal, Secretary Vithhaalrao Shevale praised the dignitaries for their dedication to environmental stewardship, reminding students that a clean, pollution-free environment nurtures a focused mind capable of great achievements. He also highlighted the connection between a clean environment and a corruption-free mindset, both essential for a healthy society.

The assembly culminated with JEMS students taking a vow to actively participate in reducing plastic use and contribute to a cleaner planet. The commitment to "defeat the plastic monster" was met with enthusiastic applause, signaling a strong resolve among the youth.

In his vote of thanks, Principal Dighe extended heartfelt gratitude to the speakers and dignitaries, affirming JEMS's dedication to the plastic-free cause and pledging the school's ongoing support. With this inspiring launch, JEMS is set to champion sustainable practices and contribute to the vision of a cleaner, greener Earth.

The dignitaries passionately urged everyone to avoid purchasing plastic bottles, instead advocating for the three R's: Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle. This simple framework can help individuals and communities control plastic waste. By adopting reusable items, we can collectively reduce our reliance on single-use plastic and curb environmental damage.

In closing, the speakers reinforced the importance of making conscious choices. They encouraged the use of sustainable materials, like copper or steel bottles, and reminded the audience that individual actions play a significant role in protecting the Earth for future generations. Their call to action was clear: it is time to break our dependency on plastic, for the sake of our planet and all living beings that share it.

Report on Bal Din (Children's Day) Celebration at Jijamata English Medium School

On November 14, 2024, Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) celebrated Bal Din, also known as Children's Day, with great enthusiasm and joy. This special event, dedicated to honoring the innocence, talents, and potential of young students, saw vibrant participation and an array of memorable activities.

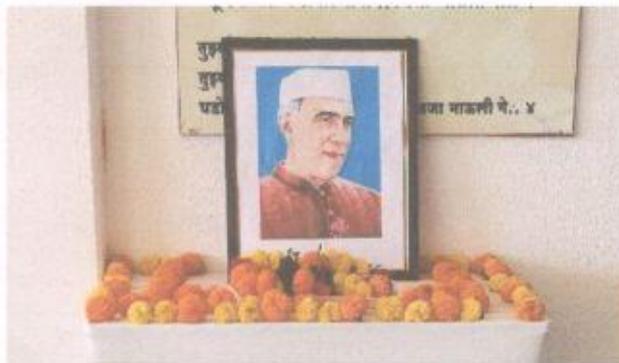

The event was gracefully anchored by Vedshri Kadlag, whose enthusiasm set a delightful tone for the day's proceedings. Following the welcome, Sarvari delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the significance of Children's Day, reminding everyone of the vision of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, fondly known as "Chacha Nehru," whose love for children has inspired this annual celebration.

A highlight of the event was the award ceremony recognizing students for their exemplary qualities and dedication. From grades 5 and 6, students Tanvi Hivrekar, Aliza Shaikh, and Mahin Shaikh were commended and awarded by Laturkar Sir. Each student was acknowledged for unique virtues: Tanvi for her impeccable qualities as a model student, Aliza for her spirit of cooperation, Mahin for his obedience, and Vedshri Kadlag for her humility. The awards were a reflection of the school's commitment to nurturing well-rounded individuals.

Additionally, students from each grade were celebrated for their outstanding Diwali vacation assignments. This recognition encouraged students to take pride in their creative and academic pursuits outside the classroom, showing that learning continues beyond school walls.

Principal Sir concluded the celebration by offering heartfelt wishes to all the students. He commended their hard work, discipline, and enthusiasm, appreciating their contributions and reminding them of their potential to shape a bright future.

The Children's Day celebration at JEMS left a lasting impression on everyone, reinforcing values, promoting excellence, and celebrating the spirit of childhood with warmth and respect.

Report on 'Happy Saturday' Activities at JEMS

Date: 7th December 2024

Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) celebrated a vibrant and inspiring 'Happy Saturday' on 7th December 2024, packed with a variety of activities aimed at promoting fitness, awareness, intellectual growth, and environmental responsibility. The day was filled with enthusiasm, participation, and meaningful learning experiences for students across all grades.

Plastic-Free India Drive

The day commenced with an impactful Plastic-Free India Drive, a call to action for students to contribute to a sustainable future. Students from grades 5 participated overwhelmingly in this initiative. They actively engaged in cleaning the school premises and surrounding areas, picking up plastic waste, and raising awareness about the importance of reducing plastic usage. With banners, slogans, and passionate speeches, the students displayed their commitment to creating a cleaner, greener India.

Jogging Activity

Following the morning assembly, a school-wide Jogging Activity energized the students. From kindergarten to grade 10, everyone enthusiastically jogged together, covering a route that extended beyond the school premises. This activity not only promoted physical fitness but also fostered a sense of unity among the students. The sight of the students jogging in unison, filled with laughter and determination, was truly uplifting.

Guest Lecture by Mishra Sir from Vision Academy

For the students of grade 10, a special Guest Lecture was conducted by Mishra Sir from Vision Academy. Mishra Sir emphasized the importance of self-confidence and self-motivation. He inspired students to search for solutions within themselves, rather than relying on external factors. His speech resonated deeply as he urged students to shoulder responsibilities, believe in their abilities, and build a strong belief system to face challenges. This session left students feeling empowered and ready to approach their studies with renewed focus.

Mahavachan Activity

The day concluded with the Mahavachan Activity, a unique reading initiative observed in every class. Students were encouraged to read aloud inspirational texts, stories, and anecdotes, fostering a culture of reading and reflection. This activity not only improved their reading skills but also instilled values and broadened their horizons. Classrooms echoed with the powerful words of great thinkers, creating an atmosphere of learning and inspiration.

Conclusion

'Happy Saturday' at JEMS was a perfect blend of fitness, awareness, inspiration, and intellectual growth. The activities were not just events but experiences that left a lasting impression on the students. By the end of the day, the school community felt a renewed sense of purpose, unity, and determination to contribute positively to society and their personal development.

Principal Mr. Ramesh Dighe applauded the efforts of students and teachers alike for making the day a grand success. He expressed his hope that such initiatives would continue to enrich the lives of students and foster holistic development.

A JOURNEY OF LEARNING & WONDER

JEMS Educational Picnic, 26th -27th Dec. 2024

The educational picnic organized by Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) on 26th and 27th December 2024 was a memorable blend of learning, spiritual enrichment, and exploration. With a meticulously planned itinerary, students and staff embarked on this exciting journey, which became a treasure trove of knowledge and experiences.

Day 1: A Spiritual and Natural Marvel

The group began the adventure early on 26th December 2024, departing from Sangamner at 1:30 am. After a refreshing journey, the first destination, Shegaon, was reached at 10:30 am. The serene atmosphere of this spiritual hub was a perfect start. Students and teachers paid tribute, offered heartfelt prayers, and sought blessings from Maharaj. The visit concluded with receiving prasad, filling everyone with divine grace and positivity.

By the afternoon, the group proceeded to explore the natural wonder of Lonar Lake, arriving at 5:45 pm. This fascinating lake, formed by a meteor impact, left everyone awestruck with its unique ecosystem and rich historical significance. The setting sun added a magical touch to the serene surroundings, making it a perfect learning moment about geography and natural phenomena.

The day ended with a visit to Sindkhed Raja, the birth village of the revered Rajmata Jijau, the mother of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Standing on this historically significant land, students reflected on the immense contributions of Rajmata Jijau to Indian history.

The group then traveled to Krushi Vigyan Kendra at Kharpodi, Jalna, for the night's halt. Owned by Vijay Anna Borade, the kendra provided a comfortable and secure stay, offering delicious food & morning break fast.

Day 2: History and Heritage Unveiled

The next morning, 27th December 2024, began with a visit to the iconic Bibi Ka Maqbara at Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar, reached by 10:00 am. Often called the "Taj of the Deccan," this architectural marvel mesmerized everyone with its grandeur and Mughal artistry. Teachers elaborated on its historical significance, making the visit highly educational.

The group then visited the Siddharth Zoo and Garden, a delightful spot that allowed students to learn about various animals and the importance of wildlife conservation. The experience was not just fun but also reinforced environmental awareness.

The journey continued to the world-renowned Ellora Caves, reached by 3:00 pm. These ancient rock-cut caves, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, showcased the rich cultural and religious heritage of India. The students marveled at the intricate carvings and grand structures, a testimony to India's architectural brilliance.

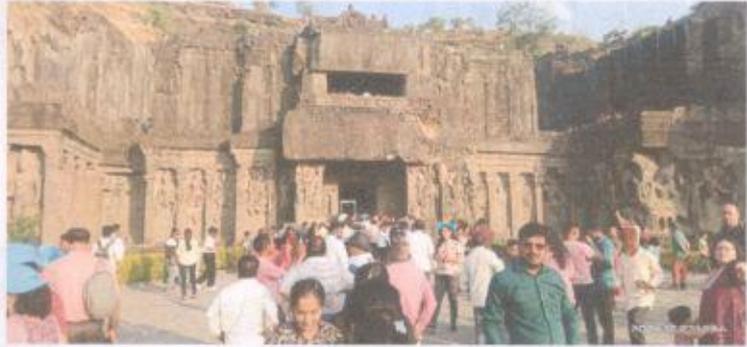

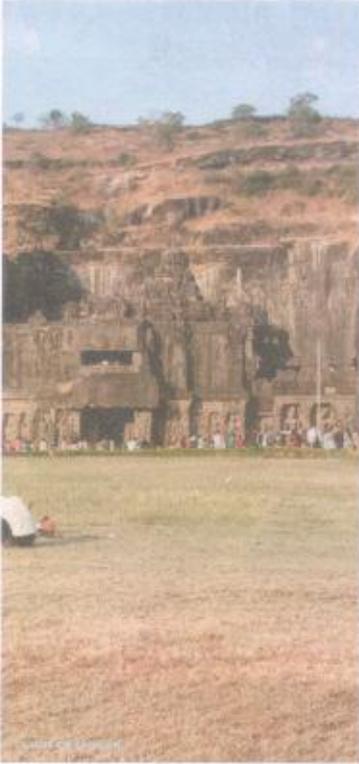

At last students & the staff had their dinner in front of Daulatabad fort which was followed by fun & frolic. We will remember this day forever.

Return Journey

After an enriching exploration, the group began their return journey, filled with joy and a sense of fulfillment. They reached Sangamner safely by 2:30 am on 28th December 2024, concluding the two-day adventure.

Conclusion

The picnic was not just a recreational outing but a journey into spirituality, history, and nature. Every destination offered a unique lesson, inspiring the students to appreciate India's rich cultural heritage and natural wonders. Thanks to the school's meticulous planning and the guidance of the teachers, the picnic was a grand success, leaving every participant with lifelong memories and invaluable learning experiences.

A Celebration of Spirit and Sportsmanship

The Annual Summer Meet at Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) unfolded with great enthusiasm and fervor, bringing together students, teachers, and parents for an unforgettable day of celebration and athleticism. The event commenced with a warm welcome address, setting the tone for a day filled with excitement and camaraderie. The school choir captivated the audience with a melodious welcome song, followed by a solemn garlanding and flower offering ceremony to honor the legendary Rajmata Jijau and Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule on her birth anniversary.

Ishwari Pavbake from Grade VI delivered an inspiring speech on Savitribai Phule, shedding light on her remarkable contributions to women's education and empowerment. This was followed by the felicitation of the Chief Guest, Memane Sir, by the principal, with a shawl and bouquet symbolizing respect and gratitude. The torch-lighting ceremony marked a moment of unity and hope as Memane Sir lit the ceremonial torch, symbolizing energy and determination. A resounding oath ceremony, led by a student leader, reinforced the values of sportsmanship, fairness, and dedication among all participants.

Adding a burst of energy to the proceedings, students presented an energetic dance performance that electrified the atmosphere and ignited enthusiasm in the crowd. In his motivational speech, Memane Sir emphasized the importance of discipline and character-building through sports, inspiring students to strive for excellence both on and off the field. The President of JEMS also highlighted the need to prioritize sports and enhance infrastructure to nurture talent.

The much-awaited Sports Meet was then officially declared open, with thrilling competitions taking center stage. Red House emerged dominant in both boys' and girls' events, excelling in Kabaddi and Tug of War, showcasing their prowess and teamwork.

The first day concluded with a sense of accomplishment and excitement for the events ahead. The spirited atmosphere and commitment of students, teachers, and staff made the Annual Summer Meet a resounding success, embodying the true essence of sportsmanship and unity.

Report on Makar Sankranti Celebration at Jijamata English Medium School

The vibrant and joyful celebration of Makar Sankranti took place at Jijamata English Medium School with great enthusiasm and cultural fervor. Anchored by the dynamic duo of Tanvi and Anushka, the event beautifully combined tradition, science, and celebration.

Traditional Beginnings

The program commenced with the Sankranti Pujan ceremony, performed gracefully by the teachers, symbolizing reverence for the sun and nature. The serene atmosphere set the tone for the event, reflecting the festival's essence of gratitude and new beginnings.

Insightful Speeches

The highlight of the day was an enlightening speech by Sairaj Pavbake, a student of Grade 6, who eloquently described the cultural significance of Makar Sankranti. He emphasized the values of harmony and the importance of celebrating traditions. Sandip Sir, the Geography teacher, captivated the audience with his engaging address on the scientific aspects of Makar Sankranti. He explained complex concepts like the equinoxes in March and September, the diameter and circumference of the Earth, and how Eratosthenes calculated the Earth's circumference centuries ago. His talk on the tilted axis of the Earth, which causes seasonal changes, left students and teachers in awe.

Principal's Remarks

The Principal lauded both Sairaj and Sandip Sir for their remarkable contributions. In his speech, he emphasized that the sun does not actually move, and the Earth's tilt causes the phenomenon of Uttarayan (which begins around December 20). He drew connections to International Yoga Day on June 21, explaining how it falls during Dakshinayan, and shared intriguing historical insights, including the Aryans' association with the North Pole. He also highlighted how every Indian festival is rooted in scientific reasoning and reflects the nation's love for culture and traditions.

A Celebration of Science and Tradition

The program beautifully intertwined cultural festivities with scientific exploration, leaving the audience inspired and enlightened. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by the anchors, who expressed gratitude to everyone for making the event memorable.

The Makar Sankranti celebration at Jijamata English Medium School not only honored tradition but also fostered curiosity and learning, making it a truly enriching experience for all.

Grand Celebration of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti at JEMS

Day: Wednesday

Date: 19th Feb 2025

With fervor, pride, and devotion, Jijamata English Medium School (JEMS) celebrated the birth anniversary of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj on 19th February 2025. The morning assembly transformed into a patriotic spectacle, honoring the life and legacy of the great Maratha warrior.

The celebration began with a floral tribute to Rajmata Jijau and Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's portrait, gracefully offered by Principal Dange Sir, President Dr. Manikrao Shevale, and Secretary Vitthalrao Shevale. The atmosphere was charged with reverence as Yadnesh Abhale's alert announcement signaled the grand entry of Shivaji Maharaj, portrayed with striking resemblance by Sairaj Pavbake. His regal presence and powerful speech captivated the audience, bringing history alive.

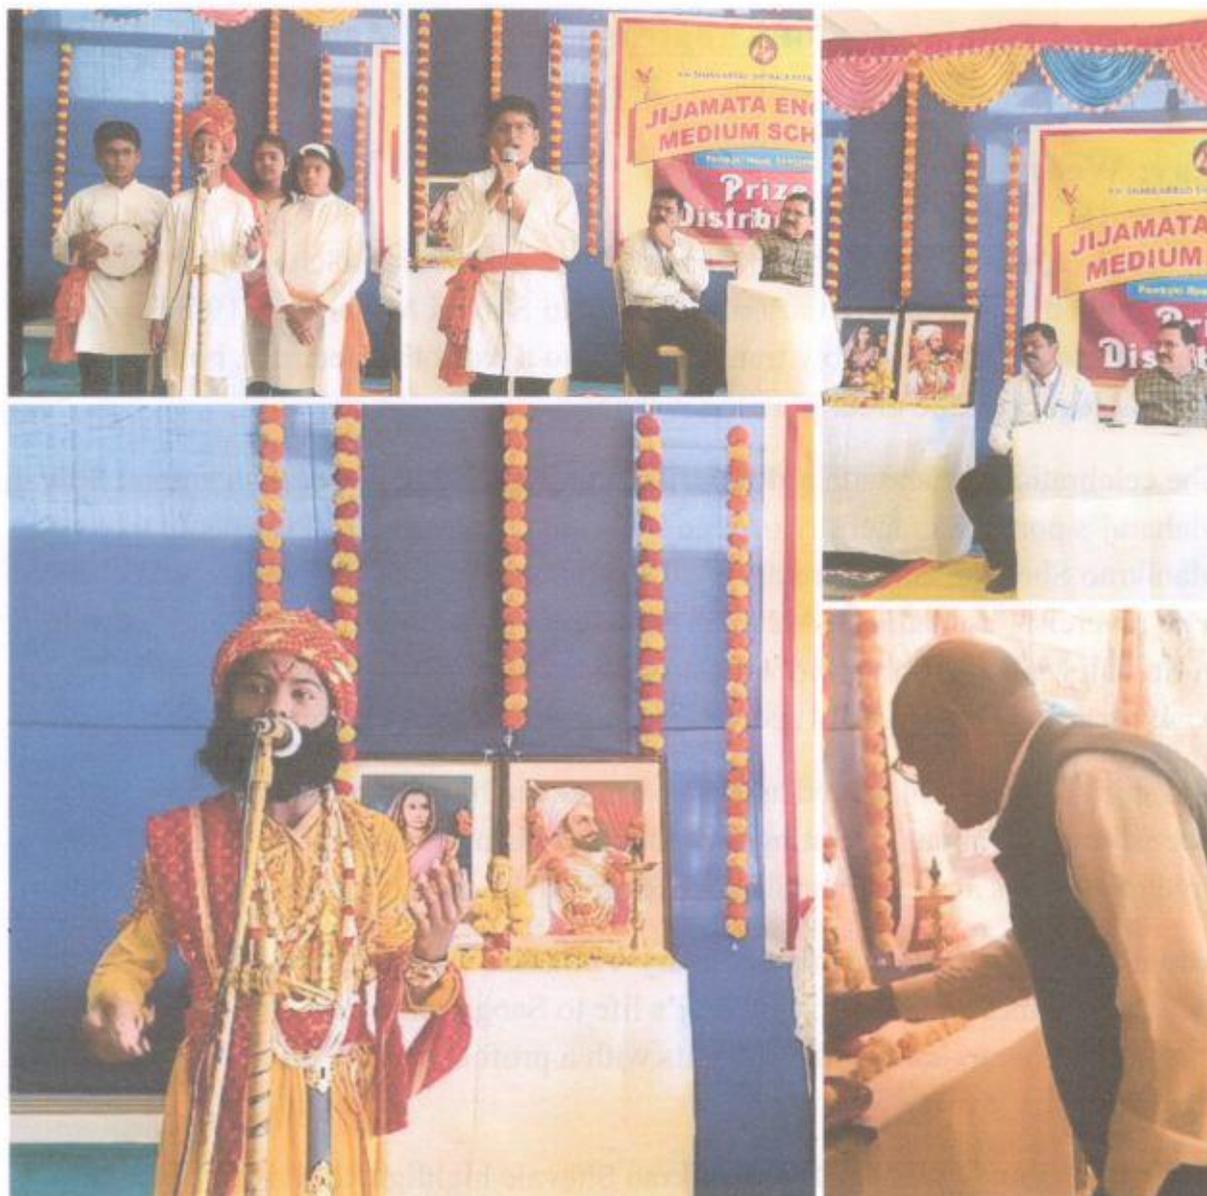

The spirit of the event soared as Pranit Umap and his group performed an electrifying 'Powada', narrating the valor and vision of Shivaji Maharaj. Their rhythmic verses and commanding voices filled the air with pride and inspiration.

Adding depth to the occasion, Secretary Vitthalrao Shevale shared two historical incidents connecting Shivaji Maharaj's life to Sangamner, Pempuri, Bahadurgad, and Rohideshwar, leaving the students with a profound sense of belonging to the great Maratha legacy.

In his presidential address, Dr. Manikrao Shevale highlighted Shivaji Maharaj's extraordinary leadership, bravery, and vision, urging students to imbibe his qualities of courage, strategy, and justice. He passionately appealed to the young minds to draw inspiration from Maharaj's life and strive for excellence in their endeavors.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Priyanka Kardile, expressing gratitude to all contributors for making the celebration a memorable and inspiring experience.

Through this grand tribute, JEMS once again reinforced the timeless values of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, igniting the flame of bravery, discipline, and patriotism in the hearts of every student.
